The Small Town Snob.
An English literary critic, now visiting the United States, makes the assertion in a public interview that snobbery is on the decline and is rapidly coming to an end the world over. True perhaps everywhere, save and except in the country towns. In the cities, where the big issues of life are constantly weaving back and forth in the shuffle of human progress, men and women alike are acquiring the sense of real social values and are daily becoming more democratic. The very business of our complicated modern life and its collective trend is forcing this attitude upon them. In the country town life is vibrating but faintly in response to the forces that are shaking the world, and vision, at best, is small. Here remains as yet the petty love of differentiation. Women seek it, not to be more exacting, but to be more exact. While degrading it, in secret, they still unduly assertive, and here the snob, unable to achieve "snobness," sets up the barriers of a caste most ferociously and wonderfully devised. Culture, so called, has come to mean, at least in this case—but it is in the abortive stage and has brought as yet no sense of that spiritual enrichment and intellectual renewal that come to those who allow their interests and their sympathies—the real end of culture. Here folks are still divided into two classes, those who are "common" and those who are not. The great world goes spinning by, the majority of increasing democracy unfolds before their eyes, but they neither hear the one nor see the other. The ancient order changes slowly, but it is changing. Still it's slow going. To emancipated folks this condition is funny often, but sometimes it is not. At the worst, at once and you feel like you just have to take a trip or become a lasting victim to the senseless and quite useless habit of causing to excess. The city has its disadvantages, but it is the atmosphere of a small town can become stifling in its smugness. —Tom Bodine in the Paris Mercury.

Concerning the anticipated departure of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Thuis from Oklahoma City shortly, the Daily Oklahoman of yesterday said the following: "Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Thuis will leave Wednesday or Thursday of next week for a trip to Cincinnati, Ohio, where they will visit Mr. Thuis' family and to Washington, D. C. and in case they find time they will go to New York city. Upon their return to Oklahoma City they will prepare for their departure for Eagle Pass, Texas, which is on the Mexican border. Mr. Thuis having been assigned to service with the Seventeenth infantry, U. S. A. At the termination of Mexican disorders Mr. Thuis will join his regiment whose permanent station is Fort McPherson, Ga., located very near Atlanta. Society loses two of its delightful members in the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Thuis. For the past four years Mr. Thuis has been instructor of the Oklahoma National guard, occupying an office in the state house. Two years ago he married the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bass, then Miss Jamie Bass, and their wedding, preceded by much entertaining in honor of the bride, was one of the most brilliant of the season of 1913." Mrs. Thuis is a granddaughter of Mrs. J. M. Bass and a niece of Mrs. I. G. Rosser of this city.

Rev. C. W. Sifford will leave the first of the week on a month's vacation trip. Reverend Sifford has planned to go to Memphis, Tenn., to Charlotte, S. C., and China Grove, N. C., the latter two being his birthplace and home.

COMMITTEE FAVORS THE DUBAR PLANS

"Peace Brings Prosperity" Selected as the Slogan.

FLOATS APPROVED

No Itinerant Shows Will Be Allowed During the Week.

A tentative draft of the program for the Third Annual Oklahoma Durbur, to be held in Tulsa September 13 to 15, inclusive, the general idea of Director-General George D. Benson for the bazaar and other important details of the celebration were approved at a meeting yesterday afternoon of the executive committee of the Durbur, held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. "Peace Brings Prosperity," will be the general title of the illuminated night parades this year, and the floats will present in allegorical and dramatic argument in favor of this slogan. Rough sketches of the floats were approved by the executive committee. While the program will be of international interest in idea and design, it will also include sufficient touches of a local nature to make it of interest to the people of Oklahoma.

One of the important pieces of business transacted by the committee was with regard to the possibility of a parade of floats. It was unanimously voted to eliminate all itinerant shows from the city during Durbur week. There will be no carnivals or shows of any kind, excepting the legitimate local theatres. A schedule of prices for other concessions was adopted. The committee privilege probably will be given to a local charitable organization and it will be specified in the contract that only one-color floats can be shown.

The proposition of organizing a league of honor among the children of the city was discussed and tentatively approved. If Director-General Benson can successfully work out this idea a court of honor will be constituted on a prominent downtown street. If this proposition is carried through the children will be given an opportunity to build the court of honor, which will be the most elaborate street decoration ever attempted in Oklahoma.

The committee took under advisement the question of providing costly Durbur jewels, to be worn by prominent state officials and local officers of the Durbur, and which shall command for the severe, unusual attention from citizens and visitors at the Durbur. Details of this project are to be worked out later.

The Durbur committee has established permanent headquarters in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, where a desk has been reserved for the secretary. The Durbur telephone number is 333.

What Our Neighbors Say.

Pawnee, Okla. — "When living in West Virginia, I used Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription for diseases peculiar to women, and found it just fine. I also used it just before my first child was born and I give the 'Prescription' credit for what it did for me and babe. The 'Golden Medical Discovery' I used for stomach trouble and it relieved me and did all I could expect." — Mrs. L. Gonkell, Pawnee, Okla.

The nervous condition, headache and weakness, which are the results of irregularity or a diseased condition of the womanly organs, can be entirely cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It regulates the functions, stops enfeebling drains, strengthens the nervous system and promotes the general health of the entire body.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. It increases the assimilative powers, and purifies and enriches the blood. When diseases of organs remote from the stomach are caused by the stomach, the cure of the stomach results in the cure of the other diseases, in heart, lungs, liver, kidneys, etc.

Sold in either tablet or liquid form. If your dealer does not keep the sugar-coated tablets, send 50 cents (in stamps) for a small box, or $1.00 in currency for a large box.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free of charge. All correspondence private. Address Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N.Y.

INTEND TO DEFEAT JAMES DAVENPORT

Politics as they are played in the first congressional district in relation to the Democratic nomination for congress, got started with a vengeance here yesterday when a conference of Democrats was held in the Hotel Tulsa yesterday afternoon having as their object the selection of one strong man to make the race for the Democratic nomination for congress against the present incumbent, James S. Buchanan of Vinola next year. A score or more of well-known politicians from all parts of the district gathered at the call of Jay H. Mullen of Bartlesville. There was nothing secret about the affair, and the men present made no bones of their intention of selecting one good man and only one to run against Davenport.

The idea as expressed was to call the district for possible and prompt Democratic nominees. Then, select which appeared the strongest, and all threw their strength behind this one, with the purpose of defeating the present incumbent. All expressed their dissatisfaction with Davenport, and said they believed the general sentiment was in favor of some man being sent to Washington who would and could do something for this district.

Those Discussed.
A number of possible candidates were discussed, yesterday including John Leahy of Pawnee, Judge Tom Right of the Rogers county court, Judge Preston C. West of the district court at Vinola, Frank Shumaker of Pawnee and George Hines of Tulsa. It was finally decided that the conference Chairman Mullen should appoint one man from each county in the district who would send in the names of all candidates in their county. Then another meeting will be called and some means determined to eliminate all but one. It was the general opinion that one man must be selected, as with a half dozen or so making the race the wishes of the people as a whole could not be ascertained and would insure Davenport's re-election.

Gloomy Observation.
"Do you think the world is getting better?"
"I don't know anything about it," replied the coarsely dressed, but intelligent, strong and very well for his age, but, judging from the European news, I should say it is suffering a terrible relapse."

AT THE THEATRES
PALACE.
In offering today "The Outcast," a four-part Mutual Master picture, we are bringing back to Tulsa for a return showing one of the best pictures of its kind ever produced. The work of Mae Marsh and Robert Harron in this picture is nothing short of marvelous. The supporting cast is exceptional, strong and very well for a comedy-drama. "The Outcast" represents the very highest type of the semi-sensational photoplay.

For tomorrow and Monday we present Miss Hazel Dawn (star of "The Pink Lady"), in a new Famous Players Film Co.'s production of "Clarissa," program with a new comedy-drama. "When Charlie Chaplin Was a Child." This comedy is going to be the talk of Tulsa. Better get in early Sunday or Monday to be sure of a seat.
